

Houston Street Fair & Market

Sandcastle Building Contest

Sandcastles in San Antonio

WHAT: This month the Houston Street Fair & Market is hosting a sandcastle building contest. Now, we know there are no beaches here in San Antonio, but we would like to create our own oasis in the sun in downtown San Antonio.

WHO: Teams can work together on a castle. We will provide a kiddy pool filled with sand and plenty of water to build any sand creation you or your team desires. All ages are welcome. Teams may be no more than 6 people.

WHEN: Saturday, May 27, 2006
Check-in, 11am. Start building, 12pm.

WHERE: Downtown on the east end of Houston Street at the Houston Street Fair & Market

There is a $5 entry fee per team. Deadline for application submission is Friday, May 19, 2006. Submit applications to: Downtown Alliance

515 E Houston St., Suite 100
San Antonio, TX 78205
P: 225-3862 F: 225-1569

You will be given one bucket in order to gather sand for your castle. We recommend bringing extra sandcastle building tools (i.e. buckets/shovels) and props (i.e. flags, toys boats, etc...) for your castle. Your imagination is the limit, and we encourage everyone to have fun and stay to enjoy the Houston Street Fair & Market. It will be hot, so we encourage everyone to wear tasteful beach attire.
